

Role of Retired Judges

S.S. Upadhyay

Former District Judge and Legal Advisor to Governor, U.P.

1. Contemplation over positive & negative tendencies
2. Practicing detachment from indulgence in selfish worldly affairs and preparing to confront the almighty.
3. Sharing treasure of experienced knowledge with peers.
4. Rendering free moral and spiritual education to the nearby people
5. Forming association of like minded retired judges willing to provide free legal aid to needy and poor people.
6. Making study of the prevalent judicial system and to suggest reforms for betterment of the system.
7. Organizing talks, symposium, conferences etc. for lawyers and judges on relevant contemporary issues of legal & judicial importance.
8. Raising voice through media against violation of Human Rights and atrocities on caste and gender grounds.
9. Make study like independent citizens group in cases involving police brutalities and fake encounters and submitting the study reports to the High Court, to the administration authorities, media and organizations of advocates for onward action .
10. To repent and remorse over misdeeds committed during service period and to lessen the feeling of guilt by doing research work on selected cases of harassed poor at the hands of rich and mighty and to help him in courts and before various other authorities.
11. To turn highly spiritual and neutral in seeing and observing own people, society and the world.
12. Writing notes, articles and ideas etc. in magazines & newspapers on issues relevant to people.
13. Launching study in group of retired judges of the cases of mighty and influential people involved in corruptions and highlighted crimes
14. Watching and analyzing judicial verdicts of for reaching consequences to the nation and the people and to suggest to the Bar and others to take corrective steps.
15. Launching study of new Legislations and analyzing and criticizing the law by organizing the talks etc and suggesting corrective measures to the authorities.
16. Providing experts like opinion to the legislature and the Govt. whenever called for on proposed legislations.
17. Writing good books, text books on law subjects for use of students, teachers and others.
18. Visiting Law Colleges and Universities in groups of retired judges to study their syllabus and utility of the same for future lawyers, judges and the Society.
19. Sharing chamber of efficient lawyers and keeping update with the various laws and rulings.
20. Organizing camps with retired judges and law teachers and students in villages which are worst sufferers of inhumanity, litigation and crimes and enlighten them to solve their disputes by mutual understanding but in such programme no help from the legal aid activists and other Govt. agencies be taken.
21. Contributing towards a common fund treated by retired judges alone for welfare of the poor & needy and also to run the expenses of the Association.
22. Publishing periodic and annual journal by retired judges about their activities and achievements.
23. Participating in discussions and talks on electronic Media on important constitutional and legal issues confronting the society.
24. Running training classes for young lawyers, coaching classes for law graduates aspiring for career in judiciary etc.
25. Returning to the Society much more than what was taken by the retired judge from the Society.

****